

A member of TOPWERK

MB CONNECT LINE UPGRADE

Installation situation in your control cabinet

If problems arise with your machine, our technician can remotely access and check the relevant system data to rectify the fault and ensure smooth operation continues.

■ Security for your production data

Automatic backup of your PLC software and production values

■ Quick response in the event of a malfunction

Direct remote access to machine parameters for fast error analysis

■ No production downtime due to data loss

The program can be restored immediately after a power failure

■ Increase efficiency through live analysis

Technical support can evaluate live data and provide targeted advice